ORDER

THOMAS DECKER, ET AL.,

Respondents.

---

JOHN G. KOELTL, District Judge:

Having considered the arguments of the parties in their briefs and at oral argument, the petition for habeas corpus is dismissed. The Clerk is directed to enter judgment dismissing the writ.

The Court is providing parties with a detailed opinion and order under seal because many of the submissions contained the petitioner's medical records and were filed under seal. The parties should advise the Court by July 16, 2020 whether any portion of the public opinion should be redacted and filed under seal because it refers to the petitioner's medical records.

SO ORDERED.

Dated: New York, New York
